

A NOTE FROM PASTORS TIM & DEBORAH

We want to invite you on an epic journey of Biblical proportions to Turkey, Greece and Rome.

Traveling, praying, studying, and fellowshiping in the footsteps of the first Christians is truly a life-changing experience. Visiting places that you read about in the Bible is not just a vacation, it will transform the way you understand and experience the Bible.

We're going to explore the historical roots of our faith; visit locations from the Bible; see the churches mentioned in Revelation; stand in the places the Apostle Paul preached and where the early churches gathered; and understand the context of Acts and the New Testament epistles. And throughout our time together we will enjoy powerful times of worship, prayer, and teaching related to the places we are standing.

We believe this trip has the potential of deepening your discipleship and changing your life and your faith. To see the Bible come alive is more powerful than words can describe. Prayerfully consider whether you can join us for this spiritual journey.

Blessings,
Tim and Deborah Clark
